

Taking the next step

PhD, postdoc & beyond

Why should I plan my career?
What happens if you fail in science?
Is networking really that important or can I keep focussing on my research 100%?
Everybody is talking about work-life-balance, what does it mean?
There are many questions that you may have. Here is the chance not only to hear the perspectives of somebody who has made it beyond PhD & postdoc, but also to ask your personal questions!
